

Presents

Awake My Soul and Sing!

Featuring performances by:

Canto Vivo Chorale

THEM Youth Ensemble

Side Note

Wednesday, July 6th, 2022 – 6:30 PM

Mesa Community College Performing Arts Center

Canto Vivo Chorale was established in 2004 through Mesa Community College, under the direction of Dr. Craig Peterson. Fondly described as a “choir of choir teachers,” Canto Vivo features an ensemble comprised of educators and professional musicians from around the valley.

All That Hath Life and Breath | René Clausen

Let My Love Be Heard | Jake Runestad

Sing We Merrily unto God our Strength | Martin Shaw

O Heiland Reis | Johannes Brahms

Hard Times Come Again No More | arr. Craig Hella Johnson

Unclouded Day | arr. Shawn Kirchner

THEM Youth Ensemble is a performing arts program for LGBTQ+ and allied young people in Tucson, AZ. THEM propels the world-building imagination and artistic expression of young people by building new paradigms for arts education and youth engagement that center the experiences of trans people.

Karitas Habundat/Of Time and Rivers Flowing | Hildegard von

Bingen and Pete Seeger, arr. Nicky Manlove

Breathing is Our Right | Pax Resler & Irene Russell Nilaja

Ogunwale

Beautiful City | Stephen Schwartz, arr. Mac Huff

We are the Garden | THEM Youth Ensemble

Side Note is a post-collegiate a cappella group based in the Phoenix area who pride themselves on musical prowess and inventive, bold arrangements. During their college days, the members helped foster the explosive growth of the Arizona a cappella community & have been integral in the formation of groups that perform in the International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella (ICCA) each year. Since officially forming in 2017, they've sought actively for every opportunity to engage with and promote the a cappella community across all age levels within the United States.

Ready To Go | opb. Republica, arr. Celine Durney

Don't Tell Me You Do | opb. Rockapella, arr. Zach Gray

Erase Me | opb. Lizzy McAlpine, arr. Bryant Mitchell

My Church | opb. Maren Morris, arr. Aubrey Chaston

Open Arms | opb. Journey, arr. Celine Durney

River | opb. Bishop Briggs, arr. Celine Durney